Gavin J. Curley admitted to American College of Coverage Counsel

December 12, 2022 – Gavin J. Curley of Manire Galla Curley LLP has become a fellow of the American College of Coverage Counsel (ACCC), the preeminent association who represent the interests of insurers and policyholders in disputes arising out of insurance policies.

Mr. Curley’s practice focus on insurance coverage, including directors’ and officers’ liability (public, private and not-for-profit entity), errors and omissions, fiduciary liability, employment practices liability and other third-party liability exposures. Mr. Curley’s practice includes an emphasis on providing advice regarding claims handling and resolution, case valuation, bad faith avoidance and coverage litigation strategy.

The ACCC, established in 2012, is an invitation-only organization of senior lawyers who have devoted most of their practice to insurance disputes for 15 years or more. The ACCC’s Fellows include many of the most prominent members of the insurance law bars of the United States and Canada, as well as Honorary Fellows from academia and the judiciary.

The ACCC focuses on educating all sectors involved in the field of insurance law – including the judiciary, legal and insurance professionals, law students and businesses – on cutting edge, emerging, and critical issues such as developing trends in insurance law and bad faith, trial practice and alternative dispute resolution, policy formation and claims handling.

The ACCC’s mission is to advance the creative, ethical and efficient resolution of insurance coverage and extracontractual disputes; to enhance the civility and quality of the practice of insurance law; to provide peer-reviewed scholarship; and to improve the relationships among the members of our profession.

“The ACCC is delighted to welcome Gavin as the latest member to become actively involved in its work,” said Sherilyn Pastor, president of ACCC.
